THE AGENCY PROFESSIONALS IN THESE DISCIPLINES COLLABORATE TO DEVELOP A WIDE VARIETY OF PROGRAMS AND SERVICES THAT INCLUDE:

- » Free mediation service (saves the federal government approximately $2 million a year)
- » Employee recognition programs
 - Rocky Mountain Eagle Awards
 - United We Serve Awards
- » Leadership development opportunities
 - President's Management Council Interagency Rotation Program
 - Mentoring | Internships | Capstone project opportunities for graduate students
- » Free and low cost training covering topics from leadership to diversity, and mediation to retirement planning
- » Health and wellness initiatives

THE COUNCIL SERVES COLORADO'S DIVERSE FEDERAL COMMUNITY BY:

- » Delivering programs that enhance employee engagement and competencies
- » Basing programs and services on agency needs, White House initiatives, and OPM directives
- » Promoting strategies to attract, retain, develop, and reward a diverse high-performing federal workforce
- » Engaging with intergovernmental and private sector partners to foster partnerships and collaborative opportunities to share scarce resources

Professionals within any of the disciplines represented on this council are welcome to participate and represent their agency's interests and needs. Contact the CFEB for more information.
