FEDERAL PARTNERS – OPPORTUNITY ZONES

September 20, 2019 | 9:00 – 10:30 am | Byron Rogers Federal Building, 1961 Stout St, Denver, CO , Mt Evans A&B or via conference line 1-877-267-1577, 998 308 121 | Cost: Free

Please join us for a presentation about the Opportunity Zones (OZ) program from HUD Program Analyst Solomon Pomerantz. There are a wide range of federal partners involved with the White House Opportunity and Revitalization Council. This Council is leading the coordination of public sector resources to help support OZ's and distressed communities. Over 160 federal agency programs have been identified that either give special consideration, priority points or align with OZ's. Do you know what your agency is doing to support the OZ program? The OZ program, created by the 2017 Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, is designed to spur economic development and job creation by encouraging long-term private investment in low-income communities across the country. OZ's also have the potential to transform educational opportunities, health and housing outcomes, and increase workforce development opportunities, among other impacts.

This meeting is sponsored by the Region VIII Fed Partners. No registration is required.

FMCS CONFLICT RESOLUTION & MEDIATION COURSE

October 21 - 25, 2019 | 8:00 am - 5:00 pm | Federal Bureau of Prisons Nat'l Corrections Academy, Aurora CO | Cost: $200.00 per student for 40 hours of training

Online registration required: <https://colorado.feb.gov/register/?ee=511>

Have you ever experienced conflict in the workplace? Would you like to learn how to appropriately handle conflict? Do you know someone in your organization that could benefit from training like this? Could your organization work more effectively if you had someone in your office trained in conflict resolution? If your answer is yes to any of these questions, you need to register yourself (or someone in your organization) for this class.

This training is sponsored by the Colorado Federal Executive Board (CFEB) Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) program and conducted by Commissioners from the Federal Mediation & Conciliation Service (FMCS). Learning how to deal effectively with conflict in the workplace is a critical, and necessary, function in all public and private organizations. This five day, 40-hour training will focus on the active listening and communication skills required to successfully resolve workplace disputes. You will learn how to look for warning signs of a potential problem and how to properly intervene. Attendees will learn appropriate communication skills, participate in mock intervention strategies and work closely with certified coach mentors to become proficient in handling disputes, discord and disagreements. Come and learn how to work with peers, co-workers, family members & employees. Once you have completed the course, you will have the necessary training to become a certified mediator if interested.

For Federal, State, City & County Employees (separate charge for private sector individuals wanting to attend). Because the class is offered specifically for public employees, the cost is a fraction of what it would cost in the civilian sector. Seating is limited so sign up early. Contact Jeff Conn for seat availability or for additional information.

Instructors | FMCS Denver Commissioners Kayla Mack & Emily Rife

Contact Jeff Conn for seat availability or for additional information | jeff.conn@gsa.gov | 303 202 4588
