

ADR LUNCHTIME SERIES

CREATING A TRAUMA-INFORMED WORKPLACE

Join us for an enlightening and transformative talk titled "Creating a Trauma-Informed Workplace."

In this engaging session, Dr. Hammad S. N'cho, a clinical psychologist and seasoned expert in workplace well-being, will explore the essential principles and strategies for fostering a supportive and empathetic work environment. This talk will explore the importance of understanding and addressing trauma within the workplace, and provide practical insights into building a culture that promotes resilience, inclusivity, and mental health. Don't miss this opportunity to obtain the knowledge and tools needed to create a workplace that not only thrives but also cares for the well-being of every individual.
